
Tennis Practice

Posted by ddcmele - 2008/04/11 16:00

Hello,
I'm in the city for 1 month and I'm looking for places were I can practice tennis with a tennis teacher or with a partner.

I live in the SIP, so I prefer places near the Xinghan street. My tennis level is intermediate (3.5 according to the american standard).

Thanks for your help.

Daniel

Hi,

Four Seasons (a residential area, beside Blue Marlin 3) is on Xing Han Street and has a tennis court.

It opens to the area residents. But no worry, just let your Chinese colleage help you buy a sport card from its managment office (ç%ä,šĩ¼š67618072) then you can book the court and play.

When you buy the card, please just give a random room number so it seems you live there!

PS: I moved out from there long time ago, but I still buy the sport card with my old room number and never have any trouble

Regards

Susan
