
Relocating to Suzhou

Posted by fionaoshea - 2007/09/15 03:10

Hi

I will be relocating from Europe to China on the 21st oct for 2 years. I am looking for advice on what the best places to live are. I will be working in Changshu, however it has been recommended that i live in Suzhou. Could anyone give advice on what areas/complexes would be best suited. Does anyone have any advice on the best way to travel daily between Suzhou and Changshu

Thanks,

Fiona

Hi Fiona,

I would also recommend Maxxelli Real Estate as a professional European owned and operated agency in the SIP.

Any questions about adjusting to Suzhou life please feel free to give me a call.

Hi

We have been here 10 months through Knorr Bremse as well and live in SIP, husbands commute is around 35 minutes and bus goes to Knorr from this area. However we only came out this way because of the schools, I would recommend SND as it is closer to the plant. Good luck

Hi Kim

Many thanks for the reply. As I am sure you can imagine its all a bit confusing right now with all the SIPs and SIDs or whatever. I am hoping to have a short visit within the next month or so to get lay of the land then I will have better idea of what is right for us.

Best regards

Philip
