English speaking TCM?

Does anyone out there know of an English speaking TCM doctor (traditional chinese medicine) in or around Suzhou?

Where can I go for safe, affordable acupuncture?

Thanks.

Mr. Kuang is doing real good acupuncture and also Chinese massage, acupuncture ..., his mobile phone no. is: 130 04 51 57 14. He has a clinic but he also comes to your house. He only speaks Chinese so you need somebody to make the appointment, but as soon as you meet him body language is no problem. He is really good and helped me and some of my friends already a lot.

Good luck!

Thanks, Ines.

Do you know by any chance how much he costs?

And is this cost more than just going to the hospital?

Thank you!

Hello Linda,

It is around 100 RMB ... I think in the hospital it is cheaper, but with Mr. Kuang I can say, that he is really good and he comes to your house ... means you do not need to go there, you do not have to wait and you know that he is really good.

Good luck!
