
move from wuxi to Suzhou

Posted by fassirelli - 2007/10/10 13:57

My family lives in Wuxi, but we are thinking to move to Suzhou for a better life quality.

So we search an apartment in SIP.

Someone can help my?

I saw on internet good pictures for this compound:

Lakeview City

Landmark skylight

Dushu Terrace

Someone knows them?

Thank you

Federica

Hello Federica,

From your choices, I think Landmark Skylight is the best, but you also should check Bailing Manisons, there are also a lot of foreigner living.

We also moved from Wuxi to Suzhou and at that time we have used Santa Fee for the moving. Maybe this is also a useful information for you.

hello Ines!

Thank you for your suggestions about the compounds!

I'm sorry is Santa Fe a real estate agency? I don't know it.

And a big question: you quality life improved from Wuxi to suzhou? In december we will have our first baby and we think Suzhou it's better for family...

have a good day

Hello Federica,

Santa Fe is a moving company.

Yes, I can tell you that the quality of living for us improved a lot here in Suzhou. Here you have a much bigger choice of international food restaurants, more foreign families are living here and what I think is also very important ... here you have more choice to see a doctor with whom you can communicate at least in English.

I have also enjoyed my time in Wuxi and I still like to go back and visit old friends, but I would never move back.

Hello Ines,

you understood very well my motives to move to Suzhou!

We move to Wuxi from Italy 2 years ago but in december we will have our first baby and to think to Wuxi Hospital for me is terrible!

I know you can understand because you lived here.

Have a good evening!
