According to the current regulation, overseas driver's license and international driving permit are not accepted to drive in China. In order to avoid the situation, a valid Chinese driver's license is an essential. We designed and launched Chinese driver's license services to cater to the needs of the foreigners or overseas Chinese to be able to drive in China.

we services:

Foreign driver's license conversion to China driver's license, Make your own Legitimate driving identity in china
