
I'm looking for someone to play tennis

Posted by fassirelli - 2007/11/18 10:05

Hi,
my husband is looking for someone to play tennis with him in the night during the week or at every time during the weekend. We live in SIP.
Thanks
Federica

Hi Federica,
I am also interested in playing tennis. My wife and I just moved here but we have not received our shipment yet so I do not have my tennis racquets yet. Once they arrive I would like to start playing, your husband can contact us at stimmt1379@hotmail.com

Hi, I live in Horizont Resort 2. I am also interested playing tennis. There is a tennis court in the community. I am just average player and long time I don't play...

Sounds good, I used to be pretty decent but have not played in years and would like to just start playing again. I am waiting for my racquets to arrive with my sea shipment, then I will post again. Or you can email me at bcandmissd@hotmail.com
